WILLIAM DEANE, Coachmaker,

INFORMS the publick in general, and his cuſtomers in particular, that he carries on his buſineſs as uſual, in Broad-ſtreet, where he makes all ſorts of coaches, landeaus, phætons, curricles, chairs and chaiſes; likewiſe all ſorts of harneſs and ſaddlers work, as alſo painting, gilding and japanning in the neateſt and moſt elegant manner.—And as he finiſhes all carriages whatever in his own ſhop, without applying to any other, he is likewiſe determined to make them as good, ſell them as cheap, and be as expeditious as there is a poſſibility; and to convince the publick of the truth of what he aſſerts, he will make any piece of work that is required, equal to any imported from England, and will ſell it at the prime coſt of that imported, by which means thoſe who are pleaſed to favour him with their cuſtom will ſave the freight, inſurance, and the expences naturally attending in putting the carriages to rights after they arrive. And as a further inducement, he will engage his work for a year after it is delivered, that is, if any part gives way or fails by fair uſage, he will make it good at his own expence. Thoſe advantages cannot be obtained on carriages imported. He has now a conſiderable ſtock of the beſt of all materials fit for making carriages.—For the above reaſons, he moſt humbly requeſts the encouragement of the publick, which will be moſt gratefully acknowledged by him.

Said DEANE paints and repairs all manner of old work very reaſonably; and has for ſale, juſt finiſhed, a new phæton, and four new chairs. 39 64

Anecdote of the Marquis of ORMOND.

WHILE the Marquis reſided in France, after the unfortunate defeat of Charles II. at Worceſter, his finances were in a very diſorderly condition; the King was unable to aſſiſt him, and the Parliament had ſeized all his eſtates. In theſe diſtreſsful circumſtances the Nobility of France ſhewed him great civilities, and invited him to ſpend ſome time at their country ſeats; among the reſt a Nobleman of great quality carried him to his houſe at Germains en Laye, where he entertained him, for ſome time, in a manner perfectly ſuitable to his own rank and that of his gueſt. At his coming away, the Marquis, in compliance with a very inconvenient Engliſh cuſtom, left with the Maitre d'Hotel ten piſtoles to be diſtributed among the ſervants. It was all the money he had, nor did he know how to get more when he reached Paris. As he was upon the road ruminating on this melancholy circumſtance, and contriving how to raiſe a ſmall ſupply for preſent uſe, he was ſurpriſed at being told by his ſervant, that the Nobleman at whoſe houſe he had been entertained, was driving furiouſly behind him on the road, as if he was deſirous of overtaking him. It ſeems the Marquis had ſcarce left St. Germains, when the diſtribution of the money he had given, cauſed a great diſturbance among the ſervants, who exalting their own ſervices and attendance, complained of the Maitre d'hotel's partiality. The Nobleman hearing an unuſual noiſe in his family, upon inquiring into the matter, diſcovered the real cauſe, took the ten piſtoles himſelf, and cauſing horſes to be put immediately to his chariot, made all the haſte poſſible after the Marquis of Ormond. The Marquis on his coming up, alighted from his horſe, while the other quitted his chariot, and advanced to embrace him with great affection and reſpect; but was ſtrangely ſurpriſed to find a coldneſs in the Nobleman, which forbad all embraces, till he had received ſatisfaction in a point which had given him great offence. He aſked the Marquis if he had reaſon to complain of any diſreſpect he had met with in the too mean, but friendly entertainment his houſe afforded? And being anſwered by the Marquis, that his treatment had been full of civility; that he had never paſſed ſo many days more agreeably in his life; and could but wonder why the other ſhould ſuſpect the contrary; the Nobleman then told him, that the leaving ten piſtoles to be diſtributed among the ſervants, was treating his houſe as an inn, and was therefore the greateſt affront that could be offered to a man of quality; that he paid his own ſervants well, and had hired them to wait on his friends as well as himſelf; that he conſidered him as a ſtranger, who might be unacquainted with the cuſtoms of France, and commit the error from ſome practice deemed leſs diſhonourable in his own country, otherwiſe his reſentment would have prevented expoſtulation: But as the caſe ſtood after having explained the nature of the affair, he muſt either redreſs the miſtake by receiving back the ten piſtoles, or give him the uſual ſatisfaction of men of honour for an avowed affront: The Marquis acknowledged his error, took back his money, and returned to Paris with leſs anxiety about his ſubſiſtence.

The MISTAKE.

TWO young gentlemen of conſiderable fortunes, ſtrongly united in friendſhip, married about the ſame time; the firſt year elapſed without any proſpect of either having an heir; the faculty were conſulted, and every method that was preſcribed, tried; Bath, Tunbridge, &c. viſited, but without effect, they determined to repeat the experiment, and one ſeaſon, happening to go late, when the company was ſo numerous they could find but one vacant room, having two beds, this they determined to occupy rather than return. The evening of their arrival being very fine, a walk was propoſed, but declined by the ladies, as they were fatigued, and obliged to be up early in order to drink the waters, therefore they choſe to go to bed. The gentlemen went to walk, and meeting with ſome acquaintance, ſtaid out late, and when they returned to their lodging, retired to reſt as ſilent as they could; in the morning when they got up, it appeared they had miſtaken their beds, and the four remained for a long time ſilent, the ladies through ſhame, and the gentlemen from vexation; but each hoped his friend had ſlept all night, or if not, was ſure of having had his revenge, yet fearful of aſking queſtions, leſt he ſhould learn more than he deſired. At laſt one more impatient than the other, began to ſcold his wife for not going to ſleep in the bed which he had choſen for her; ſhe declared ſhe did, or if he had made a miſtake, ſhe was full as much vexed for what had happened as he was; ſo much the worſe, cries he, I find we are all equally concerned. As no perſon elſe was informed of the affair, they prudently reſolved to keep it a ſecret. Whether the waters had more effect this time, or it was owing to the firſt night's adventure, at the end of nine month each lady preſented her huſband with a ſon. This occaſioned a diſpute, each father choſe his fortune ſhould deſcend to his own ſon, and neither mother was willing to part with her child; but it was at laſt determined that each child ſhould inherit from his father, therefore an exchange was made.

LONDON,

April 3. On Saturday laſt died, at Mile End, the Goat which had been twice round the world firſt in the Dolphin, Captain Wallis, then in the Endeavour, Captain Cooke; ſhe was ſhortly to have been removed to Greenwich Hoſpital, to have ſpent the remainder of her days under thoſe worthy veterans, who there enjoy an honourable retirement. She had on her neck a ſplendid collar, on which was engraved the following diſtich, ſaid to have been written by the ingenious and learned Doctor Samuel Johnſon:

Perpetui, ambita bis terra, præmia lactis,
Hæc habet, altrici capra ſecunda Jovis.

April 6. In conſequence of the many flagrant abuſes committed in Regiſter Offices for hiring ſervants, a bill is now under conſideration for totally annihilating them.

Saturday laſt his Majeſty was three quarters in arrears with all his tradeſmen, &c. therefore another demand of five hundred thouſand pounds may be expected next ſeſſions of Parliament.

The Princeſs of Brunſwick, we are told, has not for ſome time paſt experienced that kind of felicity which it is natural to imagine one in her exalted ſtation is generally bleſſed with; but ſince the unfortunate affair at Denmark has been noiſed about to the world, advantages have been taken to add to her uneaſineſs. Her ſudden departure from hence, it is ſaid, was inſiſted upon; and a non compliance would have produced conſequences which, perhaps, few have at preſent any idea of.

The reſidence of the Judges to be ſent out to India will be at Calcutta. An Attorney General and other ſubordinate Officers, are alſo to be ſent out; and as the appointments reſt entirely in the Crown, with a diſcretionary power of removals, the whole property of the Eaſt India Company becomes immediately dependent on the Royal prerogative. This enlarges the power of the Crown to a prodigious degree, and throws the weight of Bengal, Orixa, and Bahar, into the ſcale of adminiſtration. [Power cannot be more abuſed than it appears the Company have abuſed theirs nor could it be lodged in hands more unworthy to poſſeſs it; yet it would be ſtill more dangerous to lodge it in the hands of adminiſtration, which has already much more power than it ought to have, or is conſiſtent with the ſafety and freedom of the nation.—]

The celebrated Doctor Dominicetti, at Chelſea, has hit upon a method (ſince the great riſe of coals) to warm the whole city of London with one fire, as well as if every houſe had fifty in it. It is a curious machine, which is to be fixed in the centre of the metropolis, by which means the heat will be conveyed from thence down the chimnies of all the houſes, and ſo into every room in each houſe where there is a fire place; and when any thing is wanted to be dreſſed, the heat in the ſeveral apartments may be collected into any one grate in the houſe for that purpoſe. This, no doubt, will make the proprietors of coal mines, and the merchants, look ſharp about them; otherwiſe the colliers and high wheel carts, will move but very ſlowly.

Major Rogers, ſo well known in the American world, not long ſince preſented to the Privy Council propoſals for the diſcovery of the north weſt paſſage, which are now under conſideration at the Board of Treaſury. He propoſes a civil expedition, eſtimates the expenſe at twenty ſeven thouſand pounds, to be paid at different inſtalments, during the progreſs of the ſcheme.

General Scott loſt at one ſitting, very lately, upwards of ten thouſand pounds.

April 15. From a correſpondent at Liſbon, we learn, that for ten weeks paſt they have had extreme bad weather, of rain, hail, and tempeſtuous wind, inſomuch that not one out of eleven ſhips waiting for fruit have a ſingle cheſt on board; and that the common people are in a moſt ſtarving and deplorable condition, cutting and eating the green corn.

Friday laſt the grand daughter of an amiable old Duke, eloped with a Captain of the guards; the moſt diligent purſuit has been made after them but to no purpoſe.

April 23. One day laſt Week, in an interview that paſſed between the Engliſh miniſter and the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, the former demanded of the latter, categorically, whether there was any real foundation for the various reports circulated of the warlike preparations making in the different parts of their dominions; and to this his Lordſhip required an honeſt and explicit anſwer. To which the ambaſſador immediately replied, "that it was true his Royal Maſter was making preparations throughout his dominions, but that they were not warlike; that he only intended to eſtabliſh his naval and marine forces on a reſpectable footing, and to keep them ſo for the future."—This he affirmed upon his honour.

April 25. The Nabobs have formed a league together. They meet every night; they have ſubſcribed a million of money, to intimidate and corrupt. But nothing will do; the ſpirit of the nation is rouſed, and condign puniſhment will at length overtake the guilty.

Several gentlemen, members of the Houſe of Commons, who left town laſt week, declared that they would not attend at that houſe any more during the reign of the preſent miniſtry.

CHARLES TOWN, (South-Carolina) June 1.

We have accounts from ſeveral places in the country of ſome very violent ſhowers of hail, of an enormous ſize, which have done conſiderable damage.

June 9. George Roupell, Eſq; his Majeſty's deputy Poſt-maſter General for the Southern diſtrict of North-America, has appointed Mr. Henry Jarvis Stevens, to be his Secretary, and Deputy Poſt-maſter for Charles-Town, in the room of his father, deceaſed.

Saturday laſt his Excellency the Governor, returned here from the frontiers, having had the buſineſs finiſhed of running the boundary line between this province and North Carolina.

June 20. On Saturday laſt his Majeſty's armed ſchooner St. Lawrence, commanded by Lieutenant Dundas, ſailed for the Bahamas. Yeſterday his Majeſty's ſloop Merlin, Capt. Fotheringham, having procured the neceſſaries for which ſhe put in here, proceeded on her return to Jamaica. This day the Lizard frigate, Capt. Inglis, ſailed for North Carolina and Boſton. Capt. Inglis has been employed in examining the woods in the ſouthern diſtrict as far as Florida, in order, we hear, to determine what ſupply for the royal navy may be depended upon from theſe parts of his Majeſty's dominions.

A diſpute aroſe here laſt week, whether Roger Peter Handaſyde Hately, Eſq; appointed by his Excellency the Governor to the office of collector of his Majeſty's cuſtoms at this port, vacant by the death of John Hughes Eſq; or George Roupell, Eſq; appointed to the ſame office by the honourable the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, had a legal appointment. This diſpute, which is of a new impreſſion, muſt be determined, we are told, in Great-Britain. The buſineſs of the cuſtom houſe, in the mean time, is carried on by Mr. Roupell, as collector, and the former officers.

PHILADELPHIA. July 2.

The PUBLIC are cautioned againſt Counterfeit New Jerſey THIRTY SHILLING BILLS, dated April 16, 1764.—They are ſigned John Johnſton, Richard Smith, S. Smith, but ſo unlike the Signing in the true Bills, as to be eaſily diſcovered.—The Impreſſion carries a remarkable black Appearance—the Word New-Jerſey, on the left Border, is much plainer, alſo the Flowering on the Top, and right Edge, and very different from the true Bills.—They are made after thoſe Bills that have the Printer's Signature G. but it is poſſible ſome Counterfeits, after this Notice, may bear another Signiture.

On Monday laſt a Court of Oyer and Terminer was held at Burlington, for the Trial of —— Smart, alias M'Cormick, for the Murder and Robbery of Elizabeth Knight; when he plead guilty to the Burglary, in Hopes of being admitted an Evidence againſt an innocent Perſon one Shreeve, whom he impeached as the Murderer; but the Grand Jury, finding nothing to ſupport the Indictment againſt Shreeve, did not find the Bill. Upon which the Court proceeded, and pronounced Sentence of Death againſt Smart, who is to be hanged next Saturday.

Capt. Harr, from Liſbon, on the 8th of laſt Month, in Lat. 24, 22 ſpoke the Brig Ann, Capt. Marſh, from New York for Dominica, 14 Days out; and on the 10th, in Lat. 25, Long 58, he ſpoke a Sloop, Capt. Evans, from New-London for Antigua, out 14 Days, all well.

By Capt. Bowditch we learn, that Governor Leyborne had ſailed from Grenada for St. Vincents and Tobago, before he left that place, and had appointed Andrew Irwin, Eſq; deputy, in his ſtead; and that the courts were opened and a judge appointed by the Governor.—We likewiſe learn, that a large French ſhip from Cape Francois, bound to old France, loaded with indico, coffee, ſugars, &c. was caſt away on the 28th of May, on the Caucaſſes, and that part of her cargo was ſaved and carried into Turk's-Iſland.

From Lowe's Ferry, Cumberland county, we hear, that on Wedneſday the 24th ult. a farmer near that place went into his orchard in the morning, where he ſhot himſelf, by putting the muzzle of his gun to his forehead, and pulling the trigger with his toe, which carried away all the upper part of his head.

July 6. We hear his Majeſty has been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to order one thouſand pounds ſterling to be given to the unhappy ſufferers by the late fire at St. George's, in Grenada.

On the 16th of May, the ſhip Champion, Capt. Glover, bound from Grenville to St. George, Grenada (in order to complete her lading for London) run on a ledge of rocks near St. Andrew's, and was loſt with all her cargo, excepting ſeventeen hogſheads of ſugar and eleven bags of cotton. The crew were happily ſaved.

Capt. Paſhby, from North Yarmouth, on the 22d ult. in lat. 39, 34, long. 70, ſpoke a brig from Falmouth for New York, out 7 weeks; and on the 28th in lat. 37, 50, long. 72, ſpoke the brig Jamaica, Capt. James Ferguſon, for New-York for Jamaica, out two days, all well.

By a Letter from Port au Prince, dated June 7th, we are informed, that the ſhip King George, Capt. Armſtrong, bound from Virginia to Jamaica, belonging to Meſſrs. Hammerſon and Harvey, Merchants of Virginia, was loſt on Plate wreck. The Captain and crew are ſaved.

Suddenly on Friday evening laſt, departed this life, univerſally lamented, in the nineteenth year of her age, Miſs Nelly Montgomery, a young lady, who maintained, with a conſiderable ſhare of beauty and a large fortune, an engaging ſweetneſs of manners, and a decent regard to the duties of religion, which but too ſeldom accompany thoſe gifts of heaven. That happy mixture of the conduct of age with the ſprightlineſs of youth, of thoſe charms which invite to friendſhip with thoſe which command affection, rendered her the idol of the old and the young of both ſexes.

"Mature for Heaven, the fatal mandate came;
"With it, a chariot of etherial flame,
"In which, Elijah like, ſhe paſt the ſpheres,
"Brought joy to Heaven, but left the world in tears."

Her remains were interr'd yeſterday morning in the Preſbyterian church yard in Arch ſtreet, attended by a large number of the moſt reſpectable inhabitants in this city.

"There ſhall her grave with riſing flowers be dreſs'd,
"And the green turf lie lightly on her breaſt,
"While Angels with their ſilver wings o'erſhade
"The ground, now ſacred by her reliques made."

Since Thurſday laſt, five or ſix men have died by drinking cold water while they were very warm. Theſe, and many other inſtances of the like nature, ought to warn people againſt uſing cold water alone, in this exceeding hot weather.

ALBANY, June 22.

We hear that Sir William Johnſon, has, after ſeveral meetings with the deputies from the Miſſiſagues, who came to him on account of the murder of their people, at length obtained the ſtrongeſt aſſurances, that they would not attempt to retaliate on any of his Majeſty's ſubjects, and that they appeared thoroughly satisfied: Whereupon he dismissed them with very handsome presents, and belts, &c. to the Chiefs of that nation.

June 29. On Tuesday the 4th inst. William Porter, a native of Ireland, drowned himself in the Mohawk river, near Schenectady.—It is generally believed, that a difference he had with his Wife SOPHIA, to whom he had been married twelve years, and who absconded from him about five months ago, was the cause of his committing this desperate action. It is said, that his wife has confessed, that he never used her ill, and that she left him by the instigation of her Mother, Mrs. Nixon of Schenectady, who paid them a visit at their house near the German flats: He followed his wife to Schenectady, and made several Attempts to get access to her: He employed his friends to solicit a reconciliation—he wrote a great many Letters to her, but, she was inexorable——Some people affirm, that he often said, "he loved the ground she walked upon!"

NEW-YORK, July 9.

Last Week came to Town, from North-Carolina, Mr. Balthasur Kip, late belonging to the Sloop Sally, Capt. Hunt, who was cast away on Cape Look-Out, (as mentioned in our Paper a few Weeks past) who informs, that a Farmer looking for his Cattle, found on the Shore, near Stump-Inlet, almost expiring, Mary Trigleth, a young Woman, Passenger on board the said Sloop, who was providentially cast on Shore, after being seven Days alone on Part of the Wreck, driving at the Mercy of the Sea, without any Thing to eat or drink. The Farmer took her to his House, where by kind Usage she soon recovered. There were also several Hogsheads of Rum and Wine drove ashore, belonging to the said Sloop, which were sold at Wilmington for the Benefit of the concerned.

Saturday last the Halifax Packet, Capt. Bolderson, sailed with the Mail for Falmouth.

Arrived here, on the 30th of June, the Sloop Nancy, Capt. Farley, from the Bay of Honduras: He was bound to Jamaica, but after beating 30 Days to Windward, was obliged to bear away for the Gulph, and being short of Provisions stood for this Port: The 10th Ult. in Lat. 23, 20. Capt. Farley spoke with John Oliver, in a Brig from the Bay for Jamaica also, but as he could not beat to Windward, was standing for Georgia.

Capt. Prince, in the Brig Liberty, in his Way from Cayenne, in 5 Weeks and 2 Days, touched at Barbados, where he was informed, that the Ship Bristol Packet, loaded with 350 Hogsheads of Rum, besides Sugar, bound for Bristol, was on the 2d of June, burnt to the Water's Edge, in Carlisle Bay, by Means of a Lad drawing some Rum out of a Hogshead with a lighted Candle in his Hand. The 23d of June, Capt. Prince spoke with a Sloop from South Carolina, for Cape Nichola Mole, Straight, Master, in Lat. 28, Long. 67, 40, 11 Days out; same Day with Capt. Edward Scott, in a Sloop from Cape Fear for Jamaica, 12 Days out; and on the Coast with a Whaler, who acquainted him, that a few Days before he fell in with a Sloop overset, whose Bottom appeared to be newly paid over with Pitch; the same Whaler spoke with a Brig from this Port, bound for Jamaica, but did not learn the Captain's Name.

We hear from Cocksoky, in Albany County, that on Friday the 3d Instant, there fell at that Place a most terrible Shower of Hail, some of it being near the Size of Geese Eggs. The Damage done by it is so great, that it is said whole Fields of Grass and Corn are destroyed, and many Farmers will have no Harvest this Season: Several Calves, Sheep and Hogs, were killed, and two Negroes who happened to be out in the Storm, were very much hurt.

On Friday Evening last, between Beekman's and Burling's Slip, was taken up the Body of a drowned Man, who appeared to have been about 30 Years of Age, and to have lain in the Water about 3 or 4 Days. He had on an old check'd Shirt, and Tow Trowsers; an old pair of Shoes with brass Buckles, and no Papers or any Thing about him to shew who he was nor whence he came; which the Jury of Inquest have not yet been able to discover.

[Capt. Hosea, from Liverpool, Ross, from Falmouth, and Bowden, from Scilly, arrived at Boston, have brought London Papers to the 2d of May, but not receiving our Papers till late this Morning, we have no Time to insert the Advices (tho' indeed there are none very material) from the Papers. One of these Ships spoke a Ship from Philadelphia for London.—The Papers mention—That the Empress of Russia will not permit the Tartars of Crimea to return to their Dependance on the Port; nor the Turks permit the Russians to navigate the Black Sea, which would in Effect be giving up Constantinople; that the Russians had (at the 19th March) again passed the Danube and obtained some Advantages over the Turks,—But that an Armistice between the two contending Powers was concluded on the 5th of March.—That the King of Prussia had joined the Russians against the Confederates of Poland,—That his General Elmpt, had entered Lithuania with a Body of Light Troops, about 16,000 Horse and 12,000 Foot, that the Prussian and Russian Envoys have declared, that the Prisoners taken of the Confederates, will no longer be set at Liberty.——That a Turkish Squadron (March 19) was sating out to oppose the Russian's Designs on the Black Sea, and many thousand Workmen employ'd in strengthening the Forts on the Streights of Constantinople.—May 2. That the Queen of Denmark is to be sent to Zell in Hanover, there to reside during Life, that she is to be allow'd from Denmark, a Pension equal to £.4000 Sterling per Annum.—That her Behaviour had been so notoriously lewd, that without Metaphor or Exaggeration she might be justly called the Messalina of Denmark,—That 2 Men of War were ordered to sail from England immediately for Copenhagen, with several Officers of her Houshold, in order to conduct her to the Place of her destined Residence,—That the Duke of Gloucester is still at Rome, in good Health, greatly caressed, and it is suspected a Nobleman lately arrived in London from Rome is come on a secret Embassy,——That the Court of France have declared at St. James's, their Intention of a strict Neutrality, whatever Turn Affairs may take in the rest of Europe,——That very disagreeable News is arrived from Ireland,——That our Ministers act in the greatest Harmony, and no Change likely to happen, that Lord Mansfield continues to preside in the House of Peers,—That Mr. Bradshaw is appointed one of the Lords of the Admiralty—That a Lottery for the present Year was voted in the House of Commons, to consist of 60,000 Tickets, at 10l. 10s. each,—That an Act had passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors,—The Hannah, Mitchell, from New-York, was arrived at Londonderry.

The Man lately murdered at Stockbridge, in New-England, proves to be one James Farrel, of Greenwich in New-Jersey, where he left a Wife and several Children; the Murderer is said to be one Harvey, who had broke Albany Gaol, where he was lately committed for Theft. The Bristol Ship lately burnt at Barbados, was commanded by one Twine; the Loss is supposed to be at least 16,000 l. Sterling—she was to sail the next Morning, with many Gentlemen and Ladies Passengers, who lost all their Baggage, &c.]

PERTH-AMBOY.
LATELY ERECTED,
And now opened, A NEW and CONVENIENT
BATH,
IN which is a Room properly constructed to undress and dress in, with a Stair-Case leading into the Bathing Room, where Persons of either Sex may bathe in Salt-Water, in the greatest Privacy; and for those that choose to swim off into deeper Water, a Door is so placed in the Bath, that they can conveniently go out and return.

The Building is near the End of a Wharf opposite to the Bay: This Bath will be more beneficial, as at about two Miles Distance is a Mineral Water, similar to the German Spaw, which hath proved of the greatest Efficacy in many Disorders; its proper Distance procuring moderate Exercise after bathing, has proved in many Instances very assistant to the Medicinal Quality of the Waters; which with great Success have been directed, after bathing in Sea Water. The Qualities of this Spaw, have been well examined by several Physicians of Ability, and frequently recommended by them, particularly by the present Doctor Johnston, as well as his Father.

LOST
ON Tuesday morning in the Fly-market, a japanned snuff box, pretty much worn, containing sundry old trinkets, among which were, a pair of oval white stone sleeve buttons set in silver, one of the buttons being broke off from the link; a gold mourning ring, the inscription almost defaced; an old fashioned pair of child's silver buckles, the silver of which weighed about a dollar, the tongues and shapes rusty and unfit for use; a broken silver tea spoon bent so as to lie in the box, &c. Also a 15s. Jersey money bill, value 16s. 3d. and about 3s. in silver. If the above articles have fallen into the hands of any person of honesty and humanity, they will doubtless be glad of an opportunity of restoring them to the right owner, whose circumstances are at present too unhappy to bear the loss, without increasing a distress which would excite compassion, and which every humane person would desire to relieve.

Whoever has found the said box, and its contents, and will deliver them to the Printer hereof, or give notice, where or how they may be recovered, will receive the hearty thanks of the owner, or any reasonable reward in her power to give. 40 43

POET'S CORNER.

MUTUAL CONSTANCY.
A DIALOGUE.

SYLVIA.

LEAVE me, simple Shepherd leave me,
Drag no more a hopeless Chain;
I cannot like, nor would deceive thee,—
Love the Maid that loves again.

CORIN.

Tho' more gentle Nymphs surround me,
Kindly pitying what I feel,
Only you have Power to wound me,
Sylvia, only you can heal.

SYLVIA.

Corin, cease this idle teazing,
Love that's forc'd is harsh and sour;
If the Lover be displeasing,
To persist disgusts the more.

CORIN.

Sylvia 'tis in vain you fly me,
I will ever still pursue;
Twenty Thousand Times deny me,
I will kneel and weep anew.

SYLVIA.

Cupid ne'er shall make me languish,
I was born averse to love;
Lover's Sighs, and Tears, and Anguish
Mirth and Pastime, to me prove.

CORIN.

Still I vow, with patient Duty
Thus to meet your proudest Scorn:
You for unrelenting Beauty,
I for Constant Love was born.

THE SEQUEL.

But the Fates had not consented,
Since they both did fickle prove;
Of her Scorn the Maid repented,
And the Shepherd——of his Love.

This is therefore to give notice, that I shall, in obedience to the said writ, expose to sale the said messuage, or dwelling house, and lot of ground, so decreed to be sold, at public vendue at the City-Hall of the city of Albany on the 9th day of January next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon of the same day. BILES ISLAND LOTTERY.

THE managers of this lottery, do hereby inform the publick, that they have determined to begin drawing on Monday the 20th day of July next, and to continue from day to day till the drawing is finished. There are yet a few tickets unsold, which, it is expected, will all be disposed of by that time; but if that should not be the case, the publick may be assured that the lottery will be drawn at the time abovementioned, without fail. No lottery was ever set on foot of such general Advantage to this city as attends this, as by means thereof 400 lots of ground will be distributed among a number of freeholders, and that at the moderate price of 25l. per lot on an average, which is certainly much preferable to hireing ground on lease, at 40s. per annum for a lot, as is generally given, or even better than to hire at 20s. No arguments are necessary to make this evident, many know it by experience; it is therefore not doubted but the few tickets on hand will readily be disposed of. Such as are desirous to become Adventurers are requested to be speedy in their applications.

LONDON, April 21.

WE are assured that it is owing to the truly political conduct of his Prussian Majesty, that the Emperor of Germany has not taken part with the Turks this spring.

Orders were last week sent to Ireland, for the strictest guard to be kept, to hinder the raising of recruits by the French and Spanish emissaries, which are now said to be swarming in that kingdom.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, April 17.

"Some letters received from Berlin advise that 6000 Austrian troops have passed the frontiers of Poland, and entered into that kingdom, in order probably to bring the Confederates to their duty, the negotiation for a peace between the Russians and Turks being very far advanced."

April 23. Several artificers are said to be engaged to go to Maryland, to work a valuable copper mine, lately discovered there, being part of the estate of Lord Baltimore, deceased.

DUBLIN, April 4. The army lately sent to the North, under the command of Gen. Gisborne, to quell the insurgents, are quartered in 46 towns and villages, by which means the rioters dare not appear armed.

CHARLES-TOWN, (S. Carolina) May 26.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint William Moultire, and William Thomson, Esqrs. to be Commissioners, and Benjamin Farrar, Esq; and Mr. James Cooke, Surveyors, for running the boundary line between this province and North-Carolina pursuant to his Majesty's late instructions; and last week they set out to meet Commissioners and Surveyors appointed by his Excellency Governor Martin of North-Carolina, in order to proceed directly upon the said service.

BOSTON, June 18.

On Saturday the 6th Instant the House of Representatives appointed a Committee to wait on his Excellency the Governor with the following Message, and on Tuesday delivered the same.

May it please your Excellency,

THE House of Representatives beg leave to acquaint your Excellency that a motion was made on the first Friday of this session, to assign a time for the consideration of a suitable grant for the support of his Majesty's Governor of the province. But it being suggested to the house that your Excellency was not pleased the last year to give your consent to a bill which passed both houses of assembly in their first session for granting the sum of Thirteen Hundred Pounds for the support of your Excellency, the house thought proper to direct the attendance of the Secretary to give information touching this matter; who expressly said that your Excellency did not give your consent to said bill.

This house is wholly at a loss to account for that measure; unless provision is made for the support of your Excellency, otherwise than by the grants and acts of the general assembly of the province.

By the Royal Charter it is incumbent upon the general assembly to make adequate provision for the support of his Majesty's government of this province, and every act for the making such provision, is to be originated by the house of representatives.

The support of his Majesty's Governor of the province is an important part of the support of his Majesty's government here.

If provision is made for the support of your Excellency otherwise than by the grants and acts of the general assembly, it is absolutely requisite that this house should be acquainted with it. They therefore pray that your Excellency would be pleased to inform them, whether provision is made for the support of your Excellency as Governor of this province, in any way and manner other than has been heretofore used and practised, to wit, by the grants and acts of the general assembly; and if it is so, in what way and manner that provision is made.

The GOVERNOR's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

BY inspecting the Journal of the proceedings of the house of representatives in April 1771, you will find that, in answer to a message from that house, I then observed that his Majesty had been enabled, by an act of Parliament, to make a certain and adequate provision for the support of the civil government in the colonies as his Majesty shall judge necessary.

I am now able to acquaint you that his Majesty has been graciously pleased to make provision for my support in the station in which he has thought fit to place me, and as this is judged to be an adequate support, I must conclude it cannot be his Majesty's pleasure that, without his special permission, which has not yet been signified to me, I should accept of any grant from the province in consideration of the ordinary services of government done or to be done by me.

Council-Chamber, Cambridge, June 13, 1772. T. Hutchinson.

Extract from the minutes of Council for the province of Massachusetts-Bay.

At a Council held at the Council-Chamber in Cambridge, June 13, 1772.

HIS Excellency acquainted the board that he was restrained from removing the general court to Boston, whilst the assembly continued to dispute the authority by which he was directed to cause it to be held in any place except Boston: And laid before them the signification of his Majesty's pleasure, made to him by one of his Majesty's principal secretaries of state, together with his speech to the two houses, and the several messages which had passed between him and them the present session, and required the opinion and advice of the council upon their oaths as counsellors, whether consistent with this signification of his Majesty's pleasure to him, he may now remove the court to Boston: The council thereupon gave their opinion and advice unanimously in the affirmative.

A true copy, attest. THO. FLUCKER, Secr.

His Excellency then directed the secretary to acquaint both houses respectively, that it was his pleasure the Great and General Court be adjourned to Tuesday next, then to meet at the court-house in Boston, which was done accordingly.

BOSTON, June 25.

Last Wednesday the House of Representatives appointed a large Committee to take under Consideration what Measures were proper to be taken relating to the Provision made for the Support of the Governor of this Province, independent of the Grants and Acts of the General Assembly. And afterwards sent up the following Message to the Council Board, viz.

May it please the Honourable Board,

THE House of Representatives early in this session, thought it necessary previous to their making a grant for the support of his Majesty's Governor of the province, to order a message to his Excellency: requesting that he would be pleased to inform them whether provision was made for that purpose otherwise than by the grants and acts of the general assembly, to which he was pleased to return an answer: And as it is the opinion of this house, that the subject matter of his Excellency's answer very nearly affects the constitution of this province, they have directed that copies of the said message and answer be laid before the honourable Board; that they, if they please, may take them into consideration and act thereon as they may judge best.

Mr. Draper, please to give the following, being part of a letter from my son in Maryland to his wife, and you'll oblige A WIDOW.

Eastern-Shore, May 2, 1772.

I ARRIVED here yesterday morning from Patuxent to take in 480 bushels of corn, and had begun to take on board this morning, but fear shall be detained by a melancholy accident that happened early this morning on the beach.

The owner of the corn is a planter and trader, a Scotchman, whose daughter married a young man, a planter, about two miles from where our vessel lies, about eleven months ago, contrary to her father's consent; but matters, it seems, had partly been made up: Some family disputes having arisen about five weeks past, the young man had forbid his wife going to see her father, and had given her a flogging about ten days past for persisting in going to her father's house, which so irritated the old man, who was on the beach firing at a flock of ducks, when the young man was coming on board us this morning to buy a barrel of rum and some potatoes, he quickly loaded his gun again and fired at him, and I believe mortally wounded him, but he is yet alive. He has not yet lost his speech, but very much blood, and acknowledges his fault, and generously forgives his father, and hopes God would forgive him also; and desired he would tell his wife so, if he died before he should see her. This puts me in mind, my love, of the uneasiness you and I had just before we sailed, about a trifling affair: I hope this accident, to which I was an eye witness, will always put me in mind of idle rashness and folly upon trifling occasions, which often ends with dreadful consequences.

P. S. His wife is, since I wrote the above, come to her father's, at whose house he was arrived, and is thought to be near dying. It grieves my heart to see the distress of his wife and her father's whole family. We are all apt to see our error when it is too late.

NEW-YORK, July 2.

We hear from Brookhaven, on Long Island, that on Monday Afternoon, the 22d Instant, the following tragical Affair happened at South haven, in Suffolk County, viz. Mr. Nathaniel Brewster, of that Place, having ordered a Negro of his to clear a Piece of Ground, where he was going to erect a House, he went himself soon after to the Place, with a Cart Load of Stones, where finding the Ground not cleared according to his Directions, he was displeased, reproved the Fellow, as he says, for not obeying his Orders, and struck him with the Cart Whip or Goad, which he then had in his Hand, provoked probably by the Insolence of the Negro's Words or Actions, who, it seems, returned the Blow, and gave his Master several others, knocked him down and left him, to Appearance, dead. The Negro then went home, and said to the Negro Woman in the Kitchen,—The old Dog has fallen down, and I believe has killed himself. The Wench, who understood he meant their Master, asked how the Accident happened. The Negro, whose Name was Dick, answered, In making a Stroke at me, he fell down and has cut his Head against a Stone or a Stump. She asked if her Master was quite dead, the Negro answered he believed he was; then, said she, you killed him. For it seems she had heard Dick threaten before, that if ever his Master struck him, he would return the Blow, or do him some Mischief. He had also some Time before run a Pitch Fork through the Hand of one of his Master's Sons, and broke a Thumb or Finger of another, and once collared his former Master, of whom Mr. Brewster bought him, about 13 Years ago. He was somewhat sullen or surly in his Temper—thought to be not very quick witted, somewhat bordering on Stupidity, but was otherwise esteemed a pretty good Servant. He was a Native of Guinea, but was brought young into America, and spoke good English. After the Wench had charged him with murdering their Master, he left her and went into her Mistress's Appartment, where seeing one of the Neighbours with her, he went out again. She called after him, and asked what he wanted: He answered, The old Man has fallen down and hurt himself very much, and gave nearly the same Account of the Matter that he had before given to the Negro Woman. The Man who was with Mrs. Brewster then went to the Place where Mr. Brewster lay, and found him recovered so as to be in his Senses and able to speak. He told the Man he had been going to correct the Negro, who had given him a Blow that had knocked him down, and reduced him to the Condition he was in. He was not able to ride on Horseback, but, by his Neighbour's Assistance, was got into the Cart, and carried home, where he repeated to his Wife the same Account he had given to his Neighbour, adding, that when his Son came in, the Negro must not escape unpunished. He seemed sensible only of having had one Blow, with a Stick, tho' it appeared he had received several, and some of them seemed to have been given with an Axe, or cutting Instrument, his Head and Hat being cut in several Places; he soon became again insensible, and remained so till next Morning, when he died. The Axe which the Negro had to clear the Ground, could not be found: He declared he had brought it home, but it is thought he had concealed it; and that he intended to have killed his Mistress, if the Neighbour had not been with her: He was tried the next Day, as the Law directs, by three Justices and five Freeholders, who found him guilty; he was condemned to be hanged on Friday last, and was accordingly to be executed at the Mills, about four Miles from the Town. He seemed but little affected at his Sentence, and persisted in denying the Fact. Some of his Judges proposed that he should be burnt, others that his Body should be gibbeted, but neither of these Proposals were agreed to. [We have not yet received an Account of his Execution.] Mr. Brewster was a Gentleman much respected, both in his private Character and as a Magistrate; and his untimely death is greatly lamented by his disconsolate Widow, his Family, and all his Acquaintance. The Sermon preached at his Funeral, was from these Words of Solomon———Thou knowest not what a Day may bring forth.

TAKEN or drifted away, on Monday night the 25th of May last, from Talbot or Barn's Island, opposite Harlem, with a north east wind, a Scow, about 28 or 30 feet long, 4 knees in the corner, built up last year with new oak boards, cieled with the same, and made of boilsted wood. Whoever takes up said Scow, and returns her to the printer hereof, shall, by him, receive a reward of three dollars. 38 4t

Which are to be sold at the lowest prices, at his store in Queen-street, near Burling's slip, where he gives the best prices for Linen Rags, according to their quality and fineness.

When it is considered that the above paper and other articles manufactured here, make a clear saving to this country or all the money that would have been sent out to purchase them from abroad, it is hoped that all those who really wish to promote the interest of America, and of this country in particular, with which their own interest is closely connected, will contribute their aid to the success of this undertaking, which cannot be effectually done without a constant care in saving and supplying him with those linen rags, which are generally destroyed or thrown away as useless, tho' they are absolutely necessary to a paper manufactory, which cannot be carried on without them.

To add to the difficulty of procuring a sufficiency of rags, considerable quantities have been collected here and sent to other colonies, whereby their manufactories have been supplied, to the injury of our own, with this material article: And tho' the legislature have not yet thought proper to prohibit the exportation of it, yet it is hoped a due regard to their own interest will incline the inhabitants of this country to supply a manufactory among themselves, preferably to those of another colony.
